Projects

Ping Pong Game | HTML, CSS, JavaScript   Link

- This is a single-player computer game where a player hit the ball from the rods to increase their score and if the player misses hitting the ball then the game is over.
- On every hitting on the rod and left or right side of the computer screen there is a sound effect and there is also a sound effect on the game over.
- I have used Local Storage to store the highest score that the player made and show an alert on game start and on the game over.

Responsive Calculator | HTML, CSS, JavaScript   Link

- This is a responsive Calculator which has all the functionalities of a basic calculator.
- It can perform basic Arithmetic Operations like Addition, Subtraction, Multiplication, Division, and Percentage.

Music Player | HTML5, CSS3, Bootstrap   Link

- In this project I have created a Responsive front-end design of a music player.
- Project has 2 pages, the first is for the home page and the second is for a single playlist screen which can be accessed by clicking on any image/link of the Popular Artist Section and also through the option provided in the nav bar.
